

Dorseth Tuesday Afternoon

I regret extremely my necessity to reduce to infamy any Man, but a duty which honour impose, & Justice Sanctions, compels me to give publicity to the following

Notice

Mr. Philips Midshipman on board the U.S. Frigate Constellation having publically charged me as devoid of truth & honor, either of which charges he has ability to prove just, & having refused to render me the satisfaction I had a right to demand & expect I have no other alternative but to publish him to the world as a Liar & a coward.

His having ungenerously held me up to public view without advertising me of his intention, discovers a heart devoid of every principle which constitutes the Gentleman man of honour.
