

U.S. Frigate Adams 110
Manzanillo Teach June 24th 1893

Sir,

I have the honor to receive your letter of the 17th instant, this morning, in obedience to which I send the enclosed statement, of the armament of the different vessels under my command, with a list of the different commissioned and warrant officers belonging to them distinguishing such as are merely acting from those having commissions or warrants.

With great respect I have the honor to be Sir J. B. D.

Honble. William Jones.

Secy of the Navy
Washington.
