Sir,

His Majesty's Ship
San Domingo Off
Annapolis, Chesapeake

April 20th 1813.

Friday

I request you to inform their Lordships that in proceeding up this Bay, Off the River Rappahannock five sail of Armed Vessels were discovered, I immediately ordered the Maidstone and Statera, with the Fantome and Mohawk Brigs, and High Flyer Tender to pursue them into the River, however it falling little wind: the signal for the Boats of the Squadron manned and Armed was repeated, and they were all sent in under the Wilson Hooker's.
