

ADU1/503/557-561 May 28, 1813 our object, the Coys might under the Ship unservicable to meet an Enemy's Squadron and that the Enterprise might be deferred until a future day; & stood down the Bay and the next day a Flag of Truce brought me the enclosed Letter. A. on its perusal

I conceived from the terms in which it was couched, that it was intended to serve the violence of Party in the turbulent Town, the Answer. B. was returned to the Officer who conveyed General Millers letter.

I am happy to state that since the arrival of the Squadron in this extensive Bay, all the Ships have completed with Water, and considerable supplies of Fresh Provisions, obtained sometimes by purchase, and at other by Military Contributions for the refreshment and support of the And from every observation it has been in my power to make, in conse= quence

July 1813
of the arrival of the Squadron General Miller's letter

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1.