At the 1814

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of an order from my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty dated the 25th January last, to place under the Command of His Admiral the Rt Hon Sir Alexander Cochran K.B. the Flag Officers and all the Ships & Vessels under my orders, except the San Domingo, also to deliver over to him all such standing and unexecuted Orders and Instructions, relative to the said Command, as may remain in the whole or in part unexecuted, together with any Intelligence of the State of the Enemy or other information of which I may be in possession proper for his knowledge, and after
