On the 30th following, the Iphigenia, Furieuse, Bacchante and Euryalus arrived there with Transports having on board Major General Essling and the Division of Troops under his command, ^{? GOSLING} one Regiment of which the 21st (by the Instructions which the Major General found at Bermuda) is placed under the command of Major General Ross to be employed under my orders, the remains of this second division proceeding to Halifax. Leaving Rear Admiral Malcolm to bring on Expedition as soon as it should have completed its water - I quit Bermuda with the Tonnant and Euryalus on the 1st Instant, and arrived here this day, where I am advised that the Rear Admiral and the expedition left Bermuda on the 4th Instant and I hourly expect their arrival.

not clear which ships went to Halifax
