in whom are blended those qualities so essential to promote success where cooperation between the two Services becomes necessary; and I have much satisfaction in noticing the unanimity that prevailed between the Army and the Navy as I have also in stating to their Lordships the Major General Ross has expressed his full approbation of the conduct of the Officers, Seamen and Marines acting with the Army.

I have before had occasion to speak of the unremitting zeal and exertions of Rear Admiral Cochrane during the time he commanded in the Chesapeake under my Orders - the interest and ability which he has manifested throughout this late arduous Service justly entitle him to my best thanks, and to the acknowledgements of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Rear Admiral Malcolm upon every occasion and particularly in his arrangement for the speedy embarkation of the Troops rendered me essential assistance; and to him as well as to Rear Admiral Codrington, Captain of the Fleet, I am indebted, for the alacrity and order with which the laborious duties in ^{the} conveying of Supplies to the Army were conducted.

For the conduct of the Captains and Officers of the Squadron employed in the Flotilla and with the Army I must beg leave to refer their Lordships to the Reports of Rear Admiral Cochrane, and to call their favorable ~~notice~~ consideration to those whom the Rear Admiral has had reason to particularly notice. While employed immediately under my eye, I had every reason to be perfectly satisfied with their zealous emulation,
