cheapest mode, one allowance should be made for a sufficiency of oxen to stow their baggage & household goods — Tables — chairs — Bedsteads — Tools Mechanics tools & farming utensils &c &c. —

several of the Emigrants will need no outfit from the Society — & I should think an appropriation of from 150 to 200 $ will be amply sufficient to meet & satisfy the necessary wants of all the needy. —

I shall be in town tomorrow this evening for the purpose of meeting a number of blacks some of them slaves whose amiable owner is extremely anxious to get them willing to go to our Colony — several of them have entered their names already —

On Friday night I shall be at Hunting Creek. On Sunday at Friendship from which place I will write you again — My friend Gould is ardent in the cause, & will, for the purpose of expediting the sailing of the Expedition attend a meeting here over the County on Sunday & will rejoin me at Friendship on Sunday night. —

Permit me to suggest for the consideration of the Board the best instance of raising by some means, as much money as will at once discharge the Colonel Due the money of the Baltimore Ann. — How much the money might be lessened — Can it not? — If it can, it will cause at once relieve the only inspiring case and give time to your agents to collect the money and make every thing easy. — In the meantime our Northern & home agent could be actively employed in keeping from place to place — I am afraid the owners of the Ann will not wait much longer — If the money is found it can be paid by regular instalments which would make every thing easy. —

With much respect I am
