Sir Charlestown N.H June 22. 1835

Agreeable with the directions of Dr James Haw (a relation of mine) I enclose you a letter for him and ask of you the favor of acknowledging the receipt if it should come to your hands and forwarding it to him. Several letters similarly directed have been sent but the Dr has never acknowledged the receipt of any in his letters to me. Will you have the goodness to inform me if this is the proper direction, if not, you will very much oblige me by furnishing me with it.

Your obedient servant
C.W. Sumner
