or wealthy individuals. And as I am personally acquainted with no wealthy individuals who would be disposed to aid me - and have no acquaintance with any member of any benevolent Society - I see no better course, or one, indeed, so likely of success - that I can adopt or by applying to You and Mr Gurley - to use your influence with them Societies and any wealthy individuals of yr acquaintance.

This is a very promising lot of Servants - Ale of them Young - but three - and those three will be very able to work for several years to come - & They are ale of remarkably sober habits - except the one - and he has very much reformed within the last few years.

Be so good as to let me hear from you imediately - and let me know when Cpt. Stairs will take them - and whether you can aid me in raising the means to purchase their Connections.

I remain, Dr Sir,
Yr Very respectfully
Alex. M. Marbury.
