

Bellair, ~~Washington~~ the Rev. John A. Kenner, I have prepared the Manumission according to promise, But Stephen has not returned here according as he promised to do, I went to Mr. ^{W. G. P.} ~~W. G. P.~~ man on Tuesday there I heard that he left there to take the Steam Boat, on the same day his sister informed me that ~~she~~ she deduced from some conversation he made use of to her. She believed he has gone to Pennsylvania therefor I have not had the Manumission Record written. I know the truth of the matter I wish you if you please to make enquiry and know the facts respecting Stephen and write to me by the first Mail if he has arrived in Baltimore and reported himself and sends me 2 dollars to pay for Reversing the manumission and get the copies of the same. ~~Which~~ I will have the papers regularly prepared and in case to want self-immediately he will send the money above mentioned or I will not see the papers - as I intend not to have any more trouble with Stephen yours affectionately
Rowland Rogers
