Rev. I Easter

I hasten lo ansmer your letter, for on some points. I can give you qualifying information. It is not possible in the present state of affairs, absolutely to please the Co-operation of M. Jersey with your noble and interesting efforts- get I have no doubt now but my plans will be ultimately succeptul. you dray recollect that I stated more than a year ugs, having risited Mer Freylinghuysen, and talking with him about giving the aide of this State to Manyland_ He was so much opposed to it, as to treat me at least I thought so) rather uncivilly. Feeling confident that our people would be interested in your plans, I resolved in spite of Mr F. to do robot could be done. And hence & adopted the plan of visiting all the cleryymen V different denominations, and giving a full account of your operations- with the Amofold derign of getting their good will to your society. mæ Their annual loblections. The Just muceeded. yand my expectations in the last, you know I vas hainfully disappointed. And yet I cannot but think on the whole that the way was opened for the fecture.
