

In relation to a subject I think it will be necessary for him to give a portion of time this winter and spring to practical anatomy which cannot be done unless a subject be furnished him or myself. Any time previous to the first of March will answer but the earlier the better I should wish that a little care might be used to prevent a small poor subject being sent.

In relation to financial matters I may say that up to date I have drawn 14 orders upon J W Hubbard to discharge Fletchers Bills - to the 1st Feb 1846 as follows

For board at Windsor
