

Coburn Office
Phil^a Feb 10. 1847

Dear Sir

Several letters having been rec^d, highly eulogizing the Review of Dr. Alexander's History of Coburn reprinted in our last Herald from the N. A. Review & urging its issue in a pamphlet form for circulation, our Board resolved yesterday to do so.

Your valuable Journal is too small, I infer, to contain it & your other interesting matter: & as the extension of the Edition would reduce its cost below what your smaller issue would entail upon you in your own columns, I write to say that if you think its interesting views of Coburn would advance the good cause in your State, we shall be glad to supply you with a part of our Edition at $10 $1000 - which is a little below their cost. It would form a tract of 16 pages & might be issued for you as an extra of the M^a Journal.

With every kind wish

Yours truly
