

106 South Fifth St. Phil^a March 30th 1847.

Dr James Hall

Sir

By the direction of the Rev^d P. P. Irving, New York - I take the liberty of directing a box to your care, with the request that you will be kind enough to have it put on board the vessel which sails for Africa on Thursday next.

It contains the contributions, of a few friends, & some children in Sunday-schools - for the Mission school at Cape Palmas, under the care of Rev Mr. Payne & his wife. The offerings are chiefly from the poor & of a very humble character.
A list is subjoined as accurate as could be secured in the haste which a very brief notice of the anticipated departure of the vessel
