

Colonization Office
New York April 13 1847

D. J. Hall

Dear Sir
I congratulate you upon the safe return of your beautiful little "Packer" Will you have the goodness to recollect of this to inform me when she will sail again for Liberia, the price of passage (not of emigrants) freight, and for whom, also any general information respecting it, so that I may be able to answer questions understandingly and render all the aid in my power Very much respect your obedient
George Barker
