

Dr Sir

Port Conway Sept 11th 1847

By mail of this morning I have your letter of the 6th and learn with pleasure the possible sailing of a vessel from your Port to Cape Palmas about the 1st Sept. I shall most gladly avail myself of this opportunity to forward to my Brother some little articles, which will be enclosed in a Package, to occupy space (about the size of a common whiskey Blk. say a box or Blk.) If you say so, I will forward to Conway & Armstrong, Care, Gbelle Street, be so obliging as to give me the necessary directions for addressing letters to my Brother by this opportunity & oblige

very Respectfully
W. Payne
