

Carpenter's Square - 6, 8, & 10<sup>d</sup> Nails, a small bag of each - a Whip-Saw - You will kindly oblige me by replying to my letter as early as practicable, to enable me to purchase the things in season. Will the Packet certainly sail on the 1st Sept? At what hour will she get under weigh?
I would like to see them off, if practicable. Saw Mr. Blackstone, my own <sup>man</sup>, and probably Sefton, the other who intends going from this place, will go to Baltimore as soon as I hear from you - I shall direct them to call at your Room for such directions as you may think it advisable to give them.

Yours with much respect,
Geo. Ridout
