Williamsport 28th Aug. 1847

You may perhaps remember that a man named Thomas Clements emigrated to your Colony in Africa, by the Benign Liberia Packet on her first voyage, and to my surprise on the return of the ship, had no communication from him, according to his promise to do so. In this I was much disappointed. In his report would have had much influence on others of our Colonist Society, if I was able in inducing them to follow his example.

I enclose two letters for the person named, which you will please forward by the Packet, according to Bill on the 1st of Oct. and you will please acknowledge the receipt, that I may know they have been recd. and will be forwarded.

Very Resp^{tly}
