

Cambridge, July 16th, 1849.

Dear Sir:

My friend, the Hon. Brice J. Goldborough, will present to you herewith, the amount of Twelve Dollars & thirty cents ($12, 30) being the contribution of "Great Choptank parish" in response to the recent circular from the "Maryland Colonization Society."

I rejoice greatly in the opportunity of aiding, even by this inconsiderable sum, your noble & praiseworthy enterprise.

The circumstance of this remittance reminds me also, most pleasantly, of your prompt & liberal donation when I applied to you, about a year ago, for aid in my then missionary field at Laurel Factory.

I remain,

Very respectfully Yours,

Theodore P. Barber

Rector Great Choptank parish
