

Harrisonburg Va
August 26/51

Dear Sir:

I lately received a letter from an emigrant who lately went to Liberia, (and who formerly belonged to me) saying that he had forwarded by the Packet, a package containing some coffee and other little articles for me, and as they have not yet come to hand, I at the suggestion of the Rev Mr Bailey, write you this, to request you to have them forwarded to me, care of Baker & Brown, Winchester. Your attention to this will very much oblige me.

In haste
Wm G Stevens
