

be so long and ununiform, with you on this subject, but having many things to say we send them as they come to mine. There are many persons here that are in the habit of receiving from six to seven letters and have not receive one this time which renders a great dissatisfaction among the friends of Liberia in this place therefore as we have been desistent in receiving our letters you would oblige us by giving us any late intelligence that you may have from our friends in Liberia you will be please to inform us of the next opportunity to write to Liberia no more at present

We Remaine your very respectfully
