

The Printer desiring some copy for the Sept. number, I took the liberty of furnishing the excellent letter of Augustus Washington, from the pages of the Statesman (W. Gurley's new Paper), and also handing in my Report for August. I hope you will be with us in time to write the Editorial for the Journal of the present month and also to select the rest of the matter. I need not add however that if you should remain much longer away, or be too unwell, and should desire me to gather up the material and provide for this number also, my poor services are at your disposal.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison Sept 5 55

I am getting along tolerably well in the Agency, so far as collections are concerned, but can prevail on no colored people to Emigrate. At the Camp Meeting (see August No. of Journal) I realized from the three the sum of $88 and some cents. Sunday Sept. 7 at Wesley Chapel $15, yesterday at Charles T. $50.00

I regret to learn from your note to Mr. Finley that you are yet poorly. I trust however that the waters at "Goulden's Springs" with the Divine Blessing upon them may soon entirely restore you.

With my compliments to Miss Hall and Mr. George I am

Very respectfully
Your Obedt. Servt.
John Jay
