

Charleston Octo: 18th 1851

Mr. Hinley,

Dear Sir,

Please excuse my thus addressing you as I have not the pleasure of knowing your first name, — Dad Lugenbeel wrote me you would make search for the Box by the Libany for me, most favorable it is in the Custom House, and if found please ship the same by some Packet bound to this City, and the Captain pay all expenses and I will pay him here —

I have not yet received the Package of Repository; Dad Lugenbeel sent Dad Hull for me on the 11th day,

Will you have the kindness to deliver the inclosed Letter for the Rev Richard E. Murray on board the Vessel that is to sail from your Port on the 25th inst and oblige

Respectfully yours truly
Silas Howe
