Not having seen any mention in the public papers of the arrival of the Libena fact that she was in Savannah & that having since several days after her departure from Baltimore we have felt considerable anxiety about her safety. Will you be so good as to give us some intelligence of her if you have any. — The Libena I when she reached Savannah, how many emigrants she carried there & when she left that port. — The report of Messrs. Jew-kins & Fuller published in the last col. Journal, if extensively circulated, will undoubtedly do much good. — There is manifestly a change in this part of our country, in the minds of free col. people, in respect to coloni-
