

Westminster Feb 3 1852

Dear Brother

I have been waiting too long for a favourable opportunity for you to visit our place. The severity of the weather has operated against our meetings on the circuit.

If you can come up to Westminster on next Sabbath, it will be the time of my colleague's appointment, 10 o'clock is the hour.

There is preaching here every Sabbath, either by us or the Methodist Protestants, so that it will not make much difference as to the chances of your getting a congregation, at what time you come.

Your brother

W. Hank
