

Easton, March 10th 1852.

Rev. S. Day,

Dear Brother,

I have been extremely ill since yours of Feb 23^d was received, and make you this reply from my bed. Under present circumstances I have no opportunity of consulting with my official brethren of the charge as to your proposed visit.

My impression is however, that they would be willing to receive a visit from you at a later period in the spring—say April or May.

Yours &c

G. B. Carroll
