Dear Sir

You promised that if I would go around on the Eastern Shore that you would see that I should be compensated. Accordingly, I went to Sinton, Calaburg, Pocomoke and Snow Hill. My traveling expenses were about 6.00 as near as I can come at it. My funds are rather low at present and I wish to get some little things as an outlet for traveling. Therefore will be greatly indebted to you for what ever you and Dr Hall may think proper to give me.

Yours Respectfully
Thos Fuller Jr

Dr. Hall

I did not say to Mr. Fuller that I would see him compensated. But when he proposed to go to the places named above, and lecture on Colonization among his people, I said I had no doubt Dr. Hall would pay his traveling expenses. As I know he has done us much service in those neighborhoods I respectfully recommend the payment of the $6 ————
