

Sir,
 I regret very much that the first meeting of the Board of Managers of the Maryland State Colonization Society, since I have become a member of it, should take place at time when I must be absent from the city, I must leave town this afternoon, and shall have to be excused from attending the meeting. I take a great interest in the objects of the Society, and intend to do my duty as one of the Board of Managers & regret that I cannot be present with you day.
 Respectfully
 Yours
 J. A. Hall }
