

Maryland negroes, - and if not what will be the charge? And further to inquire when the next vessel is expected to sail from Baltimore for Africa with emigrants.

You will oblige me much by a speedy reply to those inquiries -

In conclusion allow me to express the hope that as it may not be practicable for James to raise more than the $200 or little more, to purchase his freedom, and inasmuch as all his children (2 boys & 1 daughter) are in Africa, and humanity claims leniency that your Society will not charge at all for taking him there, & or if they do that it will be very moderate.

My respects to you. Say if you see him I also to your daughter & son.

Yours Obediently,

A. M. Weaver.

James Scott is an excellent cooper & will be a valuable citizen in Liberia.
