

Ullentown Md. April 25th 1853.

D. Hall

Sir.

We sent down our emigrant James Dent on Monday last with an open letter in his hand directed to you. Please let us know at your very earliest convenience whether he arrived safe & if he set sail in the Banshee to day, & if he was in health &c.

Yours Respectfully

J. C. Woods.

P.S.

We neglected to ask his favor of you in previous letters
