Dear Sir

I have sent by Adams' Exp^d. this day, three boxes directed to your care for the Rev. Robert Smith Cape Palmas.
These boxes contain articles for the Mission to which he will be attached, they are all furnished by those who feel a deep interest in African education; one of the boxes contains useful articles prepared by an association of little girls. - If it be possible it is very desirable that these packages go out in the vessel in which Mr Smith will embark, & I trust such an arrangement will not embarrass you in any degree. The enclosed letter for Mr Smith, do me the favor to hand to him when he reaches your City.

Baltimore

Very respectfully Your obedient
Wm. G. Ridgely
