notice of Congress

What also in your opinion are the capabilities of the Country to support & employ additional emigrants & to what extent prevent & prospective. What has been for the health of the emigrants
- has the climate been fatal to new comers & must they like whites go through a system of acclimation
- Has any number almost any ever attended them or any condition that the climate is not favorable to the health and constitutions of blacks from the United States

Thus far I have found a very general disposition among the members with whom I have conferred, on the subject to grant permission and in the shape of a small contract. If we can only obtain that, I see no reason why there should not be a gentle increased immigration thither & the colony grow in one year as much as it has heretofore in ten. Knowing my great devotion to the cause. I hope will
