*Dr. James Hall.
Baltimore, Md.*

Dear Sir,

I see a notice in one of the Baltimore journals, (an editorial paragraph) that a Vessel is to sail from that port to Liberia, about the 15th inst. & that several emigrants will go out in her, & any freight will be taken which may be ready in time.

A House in this City has freighted to send to S. Williams & Co. in Liberia, & I doubt not will be glad to send by your vessel.

Please let us know immediately, when the Vessel will sail, & if this House can be obliged.

Yours

Very Truly

J. Morris Pease
