My Dear Sir

Your telegraph of the 20 & your letters of the 19 & 20 all reach me to day, within a few hours of each other. My telegraph to you from Norfolk left there the 18 inst. at 1 P.M. -

I cannot yet decide what I can do here. One thing is fixed: There is no use going from here to Baltimore, or present. There is none here to go. One must come, & then unload & load again before it can go - & that will make it too late to reach Balt. by the 1st June - or very soon thereafter. I think I
