Colonel Roome,
Wash^gton City, July 25, '54.
Dear Sir.

We have your favor of yesterday I presume.
Mr. McGinn requests me to answer.
Am too busy with my Records, and too nearly used up by the melting weather, to write an article in answer to Mr. Burn's hasty and ill-advised statement.
Besides, as before stated, we would much prefer that you should do up this business—knowing, as we do, and are candid enough to acknowledge, that you are far ahead of either of us in the use of the pen—if not in chirography, certainly in matter and style.
Therefore, my dear Sir, we shall be obliged if you will take a few minutes after dinner,
