My dear Sir,

You are acquainted with the generous proposal of Mr Alberts to supply the lumber and afford other aid towards the construction of a vessel for our Society. Mr McLain will show you Mr Alberts' second letter to me on this subject. In a note to me, of the same ^{date}, with that a copy of which is furnished to Mr McLain this gentleman says "Since receipt of yours, I have read Dr Hall's views as presented in the Report—there were mine in essence as I knew that he or any
