Mr. L. S. Hall.

My Dear Sir,

Mr. Irving writes

you to secure our passage or I should have written you before.
With regard to the matter, I find funds are too low at present to justify my getting one, so do not trouble yourself about it.

The Bell, one costing $20, or $25 including fixtures, what please get and have marked Chas. Mission C. Palmer. A letter was rec'd at the Col. rooms from the printer under date
