Dr Jas Hall
Balt.

Dear Sir. I have yours of 17. & will give directions as advised with regard to the goods to be forwarded from this place.

I am sorry to trouble you with Commissions if the defect is not taken up by you. but I shall be very greatly obliged if you will do so far as you can look after the shipment
- or employ some suitable person to do it & attend to details, for which I will readily make such compensation as you may deem proper.

Since packages will be forwarded to morrow by Canal transport line. & I will advise you.

Respectfully & Obediently
Your Servant
