II A 22

Bank of the Republic.

New York 8 May 1855

My Dear Sir

I enclose fifteen hundred & fifty dollars—current—and two hundred dollars, in Virginia notes—I will thank you to pay Buck and Beatty—and any body else that wants it before I return—which will not be for some days yet.

I thought to have heard from you to-day—but no—then direct as first ordered to the Astor House—when I still am contrary to all my yesterday's expectations—I shall be.

Yours most truly
