Mr Burton

Dear Sir.

I got the big pkge yesterday morning. presume there are more letters for me as I have none from the Mc Kills. If any considerable number are at the office please send me them. Your Dr McNeill. you know his hours. direct to me Care of "Randall & Greene Bros, Wall St. I shall expect to have letters from you this morning when I go out. people do not open here till 9. banks at 10. I write you to go & see Mr Randall out Fayette St. near Franklin Square & tell her Dr Sey her son is home & well. but I shall detain him here a week or two —

Please say to Mr Seys. that I beg he will get out the rest of the Journals. made up as he plans entirely. only note a word about the "Brute Agent" only if he pleases Say during the absence of the Editor" &c — I would write him but am too sick to write even this short note —

Say to Kitty when she comes in that I am half sick home too. therefore don't write to day. may be to morrow. but nothing of interest to her —

Truly yrs James Hall

P.S. Since writing the above I have received Mr Mills letter. Yours of yesterday —
