Dr James Hall

Dear Sir,

I received yours on yesterday. Mr Seys is attending to the Journal - I could not find Mrs Readell yesterday evening - I shall find her this evening & deliver your message - Your letter to Miss C. is here the boy has not come in yet - Mr Hoffman has written giving a description of the Boxes pr Falcon - he says "one was a small box, with straw protruding under the cover" the boxes described in his letter, were received at the Office some days before the "Shiner" arrived - The clerk told me he had your reciept - it had been mislaid - Mrs Becraft brought me a small dft: ($23.00) would like much to get the money for it - I enclose it herewith - Your Gas bill was sent here yesterday ($12.) -

Respectfully Yrs
G. H. Barton.

P. S.

Mr Finley call'd yesterday & said he would be here this morning to commence work on the Books - I have not seen him since -
