New York May 21st

Mr. Burton

Dear Sir: I telegraphed you today to send the African letters which Gen.
Smith & me to Messrs. Perkins & Co. 35 South St. I hope the same day arrived & that you will have forwarded the letters on that day to you. If not do so at once is done -

Thank you very much for the letter who will come in tomorrow morning that I am glad well - and have to write a word -

Thank you for the enclosed note to Mr. Smith

— Very truly Yours
J. M. Smith
