Dear Sir

I received a letter this morning from E. Withington Savannah Geo. stating that there was a box on board Shirley for him to your care & requesting that you would forward it at your earliest convenience - that all expenses would be paid by J. Lee & Co of Balt. - I enclose herewith two letters rec.d this morning also a note from Miss C. - I send you this mornings "american" contg: an account of the large fire on saturday night - nothing more that I can think of - no one has called on business -

Yrs respectfully
