Elkton October 15th 1855.

Rev John Leys,

Dear Brother,

Your proposition to be here on Sabbath November 11th to present the claims of the Colonization cause before our people has been laid before our brethren, to which they have given a cheerful response, saying that they would be glad to see you at any time. We will accordingly expect you to be with us on that day.

Affectionately Yours,
James Flamery
