

of all the drafts which he has drawn with their dates & the object for which drawn.

When do you expect to get the Prize off? Or, have you any expectations on the subject? Will you & the Princes both remain in New York till that event happens.

I would not advise you going out to Greenwood till warmer weather. It is very pretty out there in the summer time, but rather cheerless now.

Dorsey tells me that the Jobaces is still here & no present prospect of its getting off.

It continues cold - thaws a little at midday in the sun, but hard frosts at night. There are some of us alive yet, and would be glad to hear from you or the Princes.

Yrs. truly

Glad to hear the Shirley's all right.
Don't send the wrong letter to Africa - I will make any other corrections you may suggest.
