I wish your Extraordinary practical sagacity and good judgement may point out the method by which the purpose suggested by this resolve may be carried into effect. Wider & more union & more effort, no organization can help effectually the cause.

How stands the Maine Ship & was your interview the Committee on that subject agreeable and satisfactory? As it is more owing to you than to all others that I wont & moved for the Ship to you belongs the credit of the project primarily.

I wrote to Mr Latrobe for his opinion about at our late meeting, but have no reply. We are waiting for that Ship. Most truly

Your friend
