My Dear Sir

I enclose two letters from Mr. Tracy, which please return to me.

The general impression
seems to be that the Maine men will be stirred up by Mr. Stevens' libelality, & will put their ship on the stocks without delay & have her ready for sea in Aug.
Such being the fact, I am for putting it thro'
for this Soc. & for none else.

You say that 600
tons cannot be built in Balt.
for less than $36,000, without
