Baltimore March 13th /56
To the President and Managers of the Maryland Colonization Society.

Gentlemen:

I respectfully apply for the office of an Agent for your Society, and if elected, I will devote myself to its interests, in the field which may be assigned for my labors.

I feel a deep solicitude in the cause of colonization, and have for some years contemplated a visit to Africa, in promotion of its interests.

I respectfully refer you to the accompanying testimonials of character.

Respectfully,

J. W. Sullivan.
