

Says to visit C. Mount & Senon & under important Council to them both — I also to as about them. We have not yet decided where the other Receipts shall be put up, & cannot until until he goes & consults with our agents, Drs. & others there.
He may not be willing — what then? Who else can? Dr. Sugribud says he cannot.

As to the Cora again — If we send the houses & the empts. who will probably be ready to go — we shall need a vessel large enough to answer all the demands of the U.S. Saw.
But of this more, when we know. —

Yours faithfully,
H. McLean
